Never has there appeared in Maysville the shadow of the character of Professor Samwell's equine and canine paradox that gave such satisfaction. You will regret it if you don't attend tonight.

J. J. Fitzgerald the Plumber was called last night to fix the gas meter at Ellett's restaurant. When he knocked the plug out of the meter the gas came out in a volume which caught fire from a lighted candle. For a moment there were good prospects of a fire, and in replacing the plug Mr. Fitzgerald had his left hand burned badly.

Ben Bowman has returned to Newport from Lexington, where he was called as an expert to adjust a fire loss, and he and another builder adjusted the loss without calling in a third party. The adjustment was so satisfactory that Mr. Bowman was given the contract by the owner to repair the burned building.

Colonel Smith, the Lexington contractor, is now putting down a concrete gutter around the First Presbyterian Church.

All who use Ayer's Hair Vigor pronounce it the best hair-dressing in the market. Certainly, no other is in such constant demand.

Having severed my connection with H. C. Kirby & Co. I wish to express to the good people of Mason and adjoining counties my sincere thanks for the liberal patronage they have extended me in the past, and in this connection state that it is my purpose, in the near future, to engage in the shoe business at my old stand, No. 33 West Second street, Cooper's Building, where I shall have for my friends the very best and newest lines of footwear at prices in keeping with the times. HOMES IN CONFUSION.

Moving and House-Cleaning Days Are Upon Us--Comfortless Men and Cross, Tired Out, Nervous Women.

Van Tromp, with a broom at his mast-head, sailed up and down the Thames in defiance.

Brooms and dust rags are now putting households everywhere into confusion.

The traditional time for moving and house-cleaning is upon us. Innumerable cases of weakened nerves, exhausted strength and debility date from these days of feverish exertion, fat and cold rooms.

Every good housewife, however, feels bound to risk health and strength in this annual struggle with dirt and dust.

But as a preparation for great bodily and mental strain, hosts of careful women build up their strength with Paine's Celery Compound, the great nerve and brain strengthener and re-stor. Physicians prescribe it for dyspepsia, kidney trouble, sick headaches and all forms of nervous weakness, because it makes people well when other remedies can do no good.

Men and women who have the tired, languid feeling that indicates depleted blood and a feeble condition of the nervous system take Paine's Celery Compound, the remarkable discovery of Professor Edward E. Phillips, M.D., LL.D., of Dartmouth Medical School, the great spring medicine prescribed by physicians of every school.

Sleep is the necessary condition of the system to restore its lost powers and retain its vigor. Paine's Celery Compound quickly repairs the waste, worn out, nervous tissues, calms and equalizes nervous action and brings refreshing sleep that makes recovery easy.

There is such a thing as too closely watching for signs of ill health, but, on the other hand, there is a wise attention to signs of weakness and breaking down. Painful sensations and sudden weakness are nature's evident hints. Constipation, with flatulence and nausea in the early morning, suggests serious trouble. The dull, weary, aching at side and back should never pass unheeded.

Bright's disease and disorders of the heart and liver may be positively and permanently cured by taking Paine's Celery Compound as soon as neuralgia, weakness, rheumatism, lack of appetite, and low spirits show the beginning of disease of some of these important organs.

Death leaves a shining mark! Eight months ago yesterday died Professor Josiah Wilson, the father. And yesterday a loving daughter's spirit fled to his.

Elizabeth Peed Wilson was Principal of District School No. 2, and one of the most efficient and devoted teachers in our Public Schools.

She was taken ill some months ago, but it was not until the past few weeks that the symptoms became alarming.

She bore her suffering with Christian resignation, and was fully prepared when the summons came.

Miss Wilson died at 9 o'clock last night, aged 23 years.

The funeral will take place from the First Presbyterian Church at 10 o'clock Monday morning, with services by Rev. John S. Hayes.

KILLED LAST NIGHT.

Henry Bowers at Limehouse Bridge By the C. and O.

About 11 o'clock last night Ab Jones was walking along the C. and O. track, when he found a mangy body lying at the Eastern end of the bridge over Limehouse.

It was that of Henry Bowers, colored.

The head had been terribly crushed, and was hanging between the legs, nearly torn from the trunk. Besides this, several bones were broken about the body. Death must have been instantaneous.

Bowers has a wife and two children living in the Fifth Ward.

Yesterday he was seen about town pretty drunk, and it is supposed he sat down on the track for a smoke. Freight train No. 63, Westbound, woke him up in the happy land of Canaan.

The body was taken to Q. A. Means & Son's undertaking establishment, where Coroner Roe held an inquest, developing the above facts.

LATER.

Just as we go to press, we learn that Bowers had been discovered beyond the point where the body was found, and there are now suspicions of foul play.

An investigation will be made.

ACCORDING to the Washington correspondent of the C. & J. Mr. PAYNTER, who returned to Washington Thursday, predicts that ROLLA HART will be chosen his successor by a handsome majority. Well, that depends.

The Editor of The Bulletin hadn't in 1892 tramped all over THE LEDGER with both of his No. 12's, and sworn, figuratively speaking, that the only road to business prosperity was that traveled by GROVES and built out of the planks of the Chicago platform, he wouldn't now wince so freely under the deserved "lambasting" that he is getting. We are right glad that it hurts you.

MR. WILSON, author of the Wage-killer Tariff Bill which was incubated in the House, has returned to Washington after a two months sojourn in Mexico. He will not say what he thinks of the crazy quilt that has been hatched by the Senate with its four hundred and odd amendments. As the C. & J. says, it would make mighty interesting reading if Chairman WILSON would take the public into his confidence and say just what he thinks of the bill now.

The following dispatch is respectfully referred to the Editor of The Bulletin:
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., May 9th.—Orders were received today to close the Portsmouth Navy Yard on May 12th. The news created much surprise.

Of course, the command to close the Navy Yard was given by the Democratic head of the Navy Department at Washington City. Bro. MARSH will please take notice that THE LEDGER calls Secretary HERBERT down for thus closing up the establishment and throwing hundreds of men out of employment.

Fayette county is going to purchase six bloodhounds to run down criminals. Wonder what they pay their officers for there anyhow?

FAMILY POISONED.

Eating a Chicken With Cholera Thought to Be the Cause.

Thursday the family of John Minten, consisting of himself, wife and three children, residing at Kimball's Bottom, just above Aberdeen, had a narrow escape.

They sat down to a dinner of chicken and biscuits, and soon after the entire party was seized with vomiting.

The nearest physician was summoned, and after hard work he got them all beyond the danger line.

It was thought the flour had been poisoned, but the logical conclusion was finally reached that the chicken must have had cholera.
